

Kentucky Transitions Flow chart

Education and Information provided on Kentucky Transitions

Participant/ Guardian chooses transition and provides informed consent

Participant screened for eligibility for Kentucky Transitions

Housing options are presented and participant makes housing choice

Participant is assessed for medical, social and housing needs.

Housing is finalized, transition needs are addressed and providers are chosen

Transition readiness is assessed by the participant and the team

Transition team prepares participant for move to the community

Participant Relocates to home in the community

